

The Lodge, Clay Lane, Beaminster, Dorset

This site is located in the heart of the Beaminster Conservation Area in West Dorset. The bespoke building comprised of three timber pods and was designed to sit beneath the existing mature oak trees that are protected by a Tree Preservation Order. It is one of several of our projects which show how creative design can overcome the perceived difficulties of trees and people in close proximity.

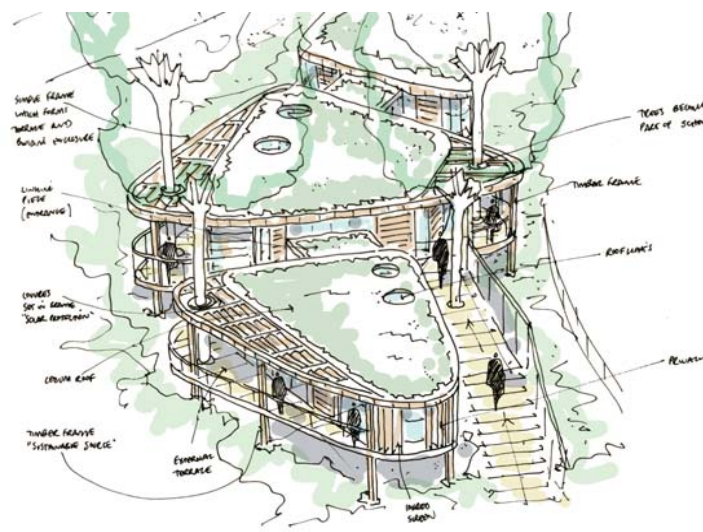

Architect: Western Design Architects
www.westerndesignarchitects.com

Trees: Mark Wadey

- Issues:
- Place making using existing trees
 - Strategic tree planting
 - Detailed discussions with LPA

Call us on 01425 651470

or visit us at www.barrelltreecare.co.uk

All images with kind permission of Western Design Architects