David Cashman

DipArb(RFS) FArborA MICFor CUEW

Dave's experience as a council tree officer is particularly useful when working with council
planners to find ways round
those barriers to success that can slow down or even halt the best laid plans.
He is an accomplished
public speaker and leads our training programme for other built environment professionals.

Qualifications and achievements

Work experience Qualifications O
Professional achievements O

Arborist with the London Borough of Sutton (1979)

Arboricultural Officer at London Borough of Sutton (1986)

Manager at Aspan Leisure Ltd (1988)

Arboricultural Association Approved Contractor (1989)

Royal Forestry Society's Professional Diploma in Arboriculture (Outstanding) (2000)

Arboricultural Consultant at Barrell Tree Consultancy (Associate Director) (2003)

Member of the Institute of Chartered Foresters (2006)

Cardiff University Expert Witness (2009)

Presented paper at the AA Conference in Reading (2012)

Delivered training workshops in UK (2016)

City & Guilds Certificate of Forestry Stage Three (Distinction) (1981)

Royal Forestry Society's Certificate in Arboriculture (1986)

Partner at Oakwood Tree Service (1989)

Arboricultural Officer at New Forest District Council (1993)

Fellow of the Arboricultural Association (2000)

Delivered training workshops in Australia, New Zealand and America (2005–2010)

Arboricultural Association Registered Consultant (2006)

Presented paper at the ISA International Conference in Australia (2011)

Presented paper at the AA Conference in Warwick (2015)

LANTRA Professional Tree Inspection Certification (2016)

Interesting projects

Leicester Square: This public realm refurbishment at one of London's most famous locations presented some interesting tree protection challenges ...

Read more >>>

The Chewton Glen Hotel: Dave led the tree negotiations that resulted in this Five-Star Hotel gaining a planning consent in green belt for its world-famous tree houses ... Read more